Terms and Conditions

1. Our normal payment terms are 50%-50%. The first payment of 50% of the total contract is required as a deposit to confirm the date of your event and is due upon writing of contract. A final payment of 50% (or balance left) of the final contract is due up to 30 days prior to the date of the event. Anytime a payment is not presented when due, a late payment fee in the amount of 10% of the total amount of the contract will be payable in addition to that payment unless prior agreement is reached.
2. There is a fee associated with a cancellation of an event. If the cancellation is made of an event that is more than 6 months away, 50% of the deposit amount required may be returned. If the cancellation of an event is made within 6 months of an event, there is no refund available. If cancellation of event is within 60 days of event, entire contract is due and payable unless we can find another event to replace it in which case, we will go by the rules for cancellation of 6 months away. Cancelled event payments may be used less 25% fee as deposit for another event date that we are available for up to year in the future.
3. Generally, there is no charge for travel unless over 1.5 hour each way (75 miles) from our local area. If the distance is greater than above, we retain the rights to charge $75/hour (1-hour increments) for overage travel depending on the package we are hired for.
4. Adjusted images, Proofs and/or USB Flash Drives are normally delivered to customers within 1 - 3 weeks after the event. Final work is normally completed within 3 months after an order is placed or at the speed of the customer. We would like to finish up all work within 1 year of the event but if the delay to order the items stipulated in the contract is longer than this time, we reserve the right to adjust and/or charge for price increases. We will try our best to satisfy exceptional needs but cannot guarantee that we will succeed every time. In any case, do not be afraid to ask.
5. Preview video is normally provided within 1 month of the event and final products delivered 4-8 weeks after acceptance of preview.
6. This Price Sheet is part of the contract. Please retain your copy as the terms for agreement are in this document.
7. To reserve a date that you have in mind, you may make a deposit using the assumptions in this price sheet without having to contact us previously. If we accept your deposit and agree to your requirements (Date of event, Location, Time, etc.), we will issue you a contract. Otherwise, if are not able to accept your deposit or requirements, we will promptly refund your money in entirety. The refund can be issued by simply returning the payment if cash, check if not cashed, reissuing you a refund check, crediting your credit card or any other means accepted by you the client and us.
8. Sending us a deposit will hold your date and time unless your requirement conflicts with another reservation that we may have. In case of conflict or non-acceptance, your money will be promptly refunded in its entirety.
9. We consider payment of deposit the point of sale. You have hired us at that time for your event no matter how far in the future the actual event that we are hired for is.
